

GMAY CAMPAIGN FOR EDUCATION

Co-Operative Education Commission Perfects Plan for Aggressive Work.

FLIST OF STRONG SPEAKERS

Best Talent in Virginia Has Responded to This Call.

Harmony, enthusiasm and progress marked the quarterly meeting of the Co-Operative Education Commission of Virginia, which was held yesterday at the John Marshall house, Captain C. E. Vawter, of the Miller School, presided. Among those present were President J. L. Jarman, of the State Female Normal School; Dr. H. B. Frissell, of the Hampton Institute; Dr. Robert Frazer, Mrs. B. H. Mumford, Mrs. L. R. Dashiell and Professor S. C. Mitchell, of Richmond College. The main business of the meeting was to make final plans for the great May campaign of education, specifically in behalf of the rural schools of this State. More than a hundred mass-meetings have been appointed. These are in all sections of Virginia, chiefly in country districts and small towns, as the main intent of the campaign is to reach the country people and stir their interest in the neighborhood school. The meetings will usually be addressed by two or three speakers and last all day, with dinner on the grounds.

The List of Speakers.

Most gratifying has been the response from the hundred or more speakers who will take part in the May campaign. These patriotic men without exception signified their readiness to do all in their power to advance a cause which they deemed so vital to the welfare of this Commonwealth.

Among the speakers appear the following:

President E. A. Alderman, of the University of Virginia, who will speak in May at Amherst on the 8th, Chatham 8th, Rocky Mount 10th, Blackstone 11th, Fredericksburg 12th and Warrenton 14th. President B. E. Blackwell, Randolph-Macon College, who will speak at Stafford Courthouse on 15th, King George Courthouse 16th and Montross 17th. President F. W. Boatwright, of Richmond College, will speak at Sussex Courthouse 18th, Emporia 20th, Lawrenceville 21st and Courtland 22nd. President G. H. Denny, of Washington and Lee, will speak at Covington 16th, Warm Springs 16th, Newmarket 17th and Eagle Rock 18th. Senator Thomas S. Martin will speak at Farmville the 5th, Culpeper 10th and Pulaski 25th. Dr. S. C. Mitchell, of Richmond College, will speak at Isle of Wight Courthouse 8th, Hebron Church, King William county, 12th; Jerusalem Church, King William county, 20th, and Batesville 27th. Governor A. J. Montague will speak at Swift Run Church, Green county, 12th; Christiansburg 17th, Floyd Courthouse 18th, Chinese City 27th and Western Branch, Norfolk county, 30th. Dr. Thomas Nelson Page will speak at Berryville 3th, Winchester 6th, Leesburg 12th, Fairfax 15th, Alexandria 19th and Staunton 20th. Hon. H. S. George Tucker will speak at Lovington 11th, Monterey 12th, Saluda 20th and Lancaster Courthouse 31st.

Home Support.

The finance committee made a good report. The financing of the movement is in the hands of Mr. T. B. McAdams, of Richmond, who is chairman, and Messrs. J. C. Freeman, Milton F. Marouse, Hunsdon Cary, Jonathan Bryan and Mrs. Stephen Putney. They are meeting with liberal encouragement in raising the sum of four thousand dollars necessary to do the work of the Co-Operative Education Commission for 1905. The best proof that citizens are alive to the significance of this endeavor to improve the common schools is the willingness shown to give money to it.

The press committee's report awakened surprise by reason of the energy it has displayed and the generous support which it has met on the part of the papers of Virginia. This committee consists of Dr. Bruce R. Payne, of William and Mary College, who is chairman; Mr. W. S. Copeland, of The Times-Dispatch, and Hon. Carter Glass, of the Lynchburg News.

Mr. R. C. Stearns, of Salem, president of the Virginia State Teachers' Association, was elected a member of the executive committee of the Co-Operative Education Commission.

Campaign Book Now Ready.

The first copies of the campaign book were on the table. It is entitled "Universal Education." This admirable pamphlet has been specially prepared by Dr. Robert Frazer and published by the Co-Operative Education Commission. The May campaign. It is a concise statement of facts, figures and illustrations bearing on the schools of Virginia. It will at once be placed in the hands of all the speakers, and will prove invaluable in the preparation of their addresses. In the issuance of this compact and yet stimulating budget of information about local education, a lasting service has been done Virginia. This hand-book is free for all who may desire a copy.

Mrs. L. R. Dashiell is chairman of the committee to organize local lay education associations throughout the State. Several of these helpful leagues are already at work.

COLORADO MOB CRIES FOR MURDERER'S BLOOD

Crowd Less Than Twenty Yards Away When Train Sped Off With Prisoner.

(By Associated Press.)

TRINIDAD, COLO., April 8.—John H. Fox was shot and killed by Deputy Sheriff Joe Johnson today. Later an attempt to lynch Johnson was frustrated by Sheriff Dick Davis and posse and the prisoner was placed on a special train to save him from a mob of 2,000 persons bent on lynching him. Fox was standing at a door in the lobby of the post-office reading a newspaper with his back to the door. Johnson entered, revolver in hand, and fired. Fox fell dead and Johnson, walking from the postoffice, started toward the county jail. He was arrested by a deputy sheriff and placed in jail.

News of the shooting spread rapidly and soon a mob of 2,000 persons gathered in front of the postoffice, making threats of lynching. A rush was made for the county jail and loud cries of "lynch the murderer." When the mob reached within half a block Sheriff Davis announced that he would kill the first man who attempted to come up the jail steps. This checked the mob, which lacked a leader.

Sheriff Davis then secured a special train on the Colorado and Southern, surrounded by deputies, was started from the jail on a run of three miles to the train. The mob started after the posse. The sheriff got the prisoner on board and the train started with a mob of less than twenty yards away.

NEWMAN—HARRIS.

An Elegant Marriage Ceremony in Little River Church.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BUCKNER'S VA., April 8.—Little River Church was the scene of a beautiful marriage Wednesday, the contracting parties being Miss Laura Imogene Harris, daughter of Mr. J. H. Harris, of this place, and Mr. William Cuthbert Newman, of Orange, Va.

NEWS GATHERED FROM SOUTHSIDE

Annexation Is the Foremost Thought in the Public Mind.

THE ILLNESS OF MRS. PIERCE

Row on Hull Street—To Erect a New Saw-Mill.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch. No. 1109 Hull Street. The prospect of annexation is being received with favor by persons in every walk of life, and the more the question is talked up the brighter the prospects appear. The average citizen has no hesitation in expressing himself in the matter, and there are few who object to the proposition.

Councilman W. D. Ferguson, who is also the president of the Olympia Club, favors annexation, and says that he will vote for such a proposition at any time, as he cannot see but good in it for Manchester.

Mr. Morgan Mills, who is strongly in favor of annexing Manchester, will probably be asked to make a public speech here at an early date. The question of annexation will probably be settled before the new bridge matter is disposed of, and the two important measures may be disposed of at the same time.

Illness of Mrs. Pierce.

Mrs. Nora C. Pierce, mother of Mrs. Dr. Rucker, is very ill at the residence of the doctor. In this city, Mrs. G. B. Saenger, another daughter of New York, is here in attendance upon her mother. A report from the sick room last night was to the effect that she was no worse.

To Go to Petersburg.

Messrs. Hart, Allen, Williamson and other members of the Olympia Club will go over to Petersburg to-morrow night to assist in an entertainment to be given in that city for the benefit of the Petersburg Red Men. The party will leave at 7 o'clock and will return on the last car.

To Erect Saw-Mill.

Work will be started to-morrow on the new saw mill to be built on Railroad Street, between Hull and Bainbridge. The mill will do lots of work for the Richmond Cedar Works in addition to that now being done in the branch of the works. The mill will give employment to a good force.
